List of References: LING 425/525: The Languages of Australia

Claire Bowern

This list is a list of useful books and articles on various aspects of Australian languages. It’s (obviously) organized by general subject area. This is the short version of the bibliography.

1 General, and collections of papers

(Useful for browsing)

2 Phonetics/Phonology

3 Morphology and Pronouns

4 Syntax

• Schultze-Berndt, Eva. 2000. Simple and complex verbs in Jaminjung, a study in event categorisation. PhD thesis, Katholieke Universiteit Nijmegen, Nijmegen, the Netherlands

5 Historical

5.1 Classifications

5.2 General

3
• Evans, Nicholas. 1990. Without this child - some regularities of semantic change in the Australian linguistic area. In Austin et al. (1990), 137–155

6 Language planning, language death

7 Song Language, culture, etc
• Moyle, Alice. c. 1970. Songs from the Kimberleys: companion booklet for a 12-inch lp disc. AIAS cat no. 13

8 Reference grammars
• Blake, Barry. 1979. a Kalkatungu grammar, volume B57. Canberra: Pacific Linguistics
• Dench, Alan. 1994? Martuthunira: a language of the Pilbara region of Western Australia, volume ?? Canberra: Pacific Linguistics (also available as electronic version from author)

• Evans, Nicholas. 1995. A grammar of Kayardild, with historical-comparative notes on Tangkic. Berlin: Mouton de Gruyter

• Stokes, Bronwyn. 1982. A description of the Nyigina language of the Kimberley region of Western Australia. PhD thesis, Australian National University, Canberra